PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

"MOTOR CARRIER ACT."

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Motor Carrier Act," the following order was made by the Public Utilities Commission on the 26th day of March, 1941, and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council on the 28th day of March, 1941, by Order in Council No. 397.

IN THE MATTER OF THE REGULATIONS UNDER THE "MOTOR CARRIER ACT."

W. A. CARROTHERS, D.F.C., Ph.D., Chairman.
L. W. PATMORE, LL.B., K.C., Commissioner.
J. C. MACDONALD, B.A., B.E., Commissioner.

The 26th day of March, 1941.

It is ordered that the regulations made by the Public Utilities Commission on the 4th day of January, 1940, pursuant to the provisions of the "Motor Carrier Act" and section 8 of the "Interpretation Act," and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council on the 6th day of January, 1940, by Order in Council No. 8, and as amended from time to time, be further amended by inserting the following after paragraph 3.80:—

"3.805 Fees when Licence is reclassified by Commission.

"In cases where, on the motion of the Commission, a subsisting licence is to be cancelled and a licence of a different kind or class is to be issued in place thereof, the amount of fees to be paid by the licensee or to be refunded to the licensee, as the case may be, shall be based on the following rule:—

“To the amount calculated on the basis of ton of freight or passenger seat payable for the full-year licence fee for a licence of the same kind or class as the subsisting licence, divided by twelve and multiplied by the number of months the licence has been in effect, shall be added the amount calculated on the basis of ton of freight or passenger seat payable for the full-year licence fee for the kind or class of licence to be issued, divided by twelve and multiplied by the number of months the new licence is to be in effect.

“The above sum or the minimum shown in dollars in the schedule for the new licence, whichever is the greater, shall be the amount used in determining what is to be paid or refunded in respect of the new licence, as follows:—

- “(a.) If that amount is greater than the fee actually paid for the subsisting licence, the licensee shall pay the difference;
- “(b.) If that amount is less than the fee actually paid for the subsisting licence, the difference shall be refunded to the licensee.”

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 17439.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Mainway Theatres, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 29th day of March, 1941.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of one dollar each.

The address of its registered office is Room 902, Royal Trust Building, 626 Pender Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of proprietors or managers of theatres, amusement palaces and halls, cinematographic and moving-picture shows and exhibitions, and to provide for the production, representation, and performance of operas, stage plays, operettas, vaudevilles, ballets, spectacular pieces, concerts, and other musical and dramatic performances and entertainments of every kind and nature, and to provide for the holding of meetings, private or public, political or municipal, or otherwise:

(b.) To carry on the business of theatre agents, promoters, and musical directors, and any other business which may seem calculated to enhance any of the Company's powers and rights:

(c.) To erect, construct, and acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise all and any theatres, moving-picture theatres, and the equipment thereof, and all other places of assembly or amusement convenient for the purposes of the Company, and to manage, maintain, and carry on the same:

(d.) To enter into agreements with film exchanges, film-producing companies, and other persons, firms or corporations for the rights of moving-picture films for exhibition in any theatre:

(e.) To purchase, or otherwise acquire and obtain exclusive and other interests in copyrights and rights of representation, and any other rights of or in plays, music, songs, cinematograph and other films, words, operas, comedies, burlesques, and compositions:

(f.) To enter into contracts with authors, artists, or other persons for the dramatic or other rights of operas, plays, moving-picture films, spectacular pieces, and other dramatic or musical performances and entertainments, and for the production and representation thereof:

(g.) To manufacture, buy, produce, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to own, exhibit, show, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, and generally to trade and deal in, distribute, and exchange theatre furniture and equipment, motion pictures, sound and silent, phonographs, records, photographs and photographic reproductions, illustrations, sound equipment and machinery, cameras, projectors, films, slides, and plates, curtains, stage equipment and scenery, and all necessary equipment and machinery for the making, producing, and exhibiting of motion pictures, scripts, scenarios, stories, acts, plays, operas, vaudeville, shows, models, and ideas for use in connection with motion pictures, and to carry on a general advertising business, whether by motion picture or otherwise:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to have, hold, let, lease, improve, bring to account, sell, agree to sell, transfer, and assign lands, buildings, and improvements owned by the Company or in which the Company has an interest:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the property or undertakings of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit:

(j.) To carry on the business of a general moving pictures and film exchange:

(k.) To carry on business as merchants, storekeepers, manufacturers, importers, exporters, brokers, caterers, owners and operators of restaurants, cafés, and refreshment-booths, dramatic and musical publishers and printers, purveyors of tobacco and confectionery, dealers and jobbers, both wholesale and retail, and to purchase, sell, and deal in goods, supplies, equipment, and merchandise of every kind and nature:

(l.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, sell, lease, or otherwise deal with copyrights, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or turn to account copyrights so acquired:

(m.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's rights or property for the time being:

(n.) It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs of this clause may be used as individual objects and shall in nowise be restricted to or subject to any interference from any other paragraphs.

"COMPANIES ACT."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that there have this day been registered, pursuant to the "Companies Act," an office copy of an order of the Honourable the Chief Justice, dated the 21st day of March, 1941, confirming wholly a special resolution of Burleigh & Partners, Limited, for the alteration of the objects of the Company, and a copy of the memorandum of association of the Company as altered.

The objects of the Company have been extended by the addition of the following clauses:—

"(e.) To transact and carry on financial agency or brokerage business of any kind, and, in particular, to carry on the business of real-estate agents, and the business of the investment and lending of money, the buying and selling of property, real and personal, and the collection and receipt of money:

"(f.) To carry on the business of insurance agents and brokers for all kinds of insurance, and, in particular but so as not to restrict the generality of the foregoing, to carry on business as agents and brokers for life, fire, accident, employers' liability, workmen's insurance, sickness, burglary, robbery, theft, marine, fidelity, or any other kind of insurance:

"(g.) To purchase, buy, contract for, lease, or otherwise acquire, take, own, possess, use, hold for investment, or otherwise generally deal in and with, sell, convey, exchange, mortgage, pledge, lease, or otherwise hypothecate or dispose of grants of fee-simple or lesser estates, rights, powers, options, or privileges, and interests of any nature whatsoever in and to real and personal property, wheresoever situate, and to manage, operate, maintain, alter, reconstruct, sell, let, and develop the same:

"(h.) To hold, acquire, purchase, sell, lease, exchange, manage, or otherwise deal with or handle any personal or real property of any kind or nature whatsoever, or any estate or interest therein:

"(i.) To erect and construct houses, buildings, factories, or works of every description on any land of the Company or upon any other lands or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, and improve existing houses, buildings, or works thereon, and to subdivide, convert, and appropriate any such lands into and for roads, streets, squares, gardens, and pleasure-grounds and other conveniences, and generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company or any other property under contract or otherwise:

"(j.) To carry on a general construction business, including the businesses of architects and engineers in all their branches, subject to the provisions and conditions of the 'Architects Act,' R.S.B.C. 1936, and amending Acts, and subject to the 'Engineering Profession Act,' R.S.B.C. 1936, and amending Acts:

"(k.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company by mortgaging, pledging, hypothecating, or otherwise dealing with any of the Company's property, both real or personal, or by issuing shares, bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company secured thereon, or by borrowing upon promissory note, overdraft, or by any other form of financial contract as the Company may see fit."

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
